

Here are News Clippings from "Cycles of Impermanence" an exhibition of etching, Lithographs & woodcuts by Kabi Raj Lama. Click on the thumb nail/s to enlarge. (Updated: 04/03/2021)

THE LIVING ROOM
CULTURE & LIFESTYLE

2021 March 3
2077 B.S. Faguin 19 Wednesday
The Rising Nepal

He had almost decided to leave art. Now he teaches it

Having been a professional portrait painter for over 20 years, Kalyan Bhandari has decided to turn his back on the profession and teach art to the next generation.

Kalyan Bhandari, a professional portrait painter for over 20 years, has decided to turn his back on the profession and teach art to the next generation. He has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu. He has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu. He has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu.

Bhandari has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu. He has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu. He has been teaching art for the last few years at the Kalyan Bhandari Art Studio in Kathmandu.

ENTERTAINMENT

Art works highlight cultural heritages after 2015 quake

By Binodha Bhandari
Kathmandu, Mar 2

When almost all of it and everything else was destroyed, the "Cycles of Impermanence" exhibition in Kathmandu is a cultural heritage project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal.

It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal. It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal.

It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal. It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal.

It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal. It is a project that is not only a tribute to the art of the past but also a reminder of the cultural heritage of Nepal.

2021 March 3
2077 B.S. Faguin 19 Wednesday
The Rising Nepal