

Khulla Dhoka : Open Doors- 2006

Sharing Spaces,
Sharing Ideas,
Dispelling Boundaries

Khulla Dhoka - The Open Door Project

In March 2006, the Siddhartha Art Gallery launched a special community art project that involved artists, poets, musicians and people from different social backgrounds. The primary aim of this project was to initiate dialogue between different social groups and to break through the existing mental barriers of mistrust and ignorance. The project was conceived to create an atmosphere of peace, harmony and understanding through physical and visual dialogue.